

VHL Surveillance Diary

Use this diary to keep track of your surveillance scans and investigations.

Recording the date, type of scan, and where it was performed can help you monitor your ongoing surveillance, identify when future scans may be due, and ensure important information is readily available at your appointments. We recommend that you involve your GP in your health care plan.

[illegible]

Support

Education

Research

Awareness

Advocacy